

About Chiara

Chiara Veronesi is a member of our Trusts and Estates practice group, focusing on estate planning, probate and trust administration. Chiara is based in our Monterey office.

Chiara obtained her J.D. from the University of California, Davis School of Law. During law school, Chiara was a Senior Notes and Comments Editor for the UC Davis Law Review, and president of the Business Law Society. She received a Reynoso Academic Excellence Award for receiving the highest grade in Wine and the Law, and a Reynoso Academic Achievement Award for obtaining the second-highest grade in International Business Transactions.

Prior to attending UC Davis, Chiara worked at Peace Action, a non-profit based in Oakland. Chiara earned two Bachelor's degrees, in International Relations and Spanish, from California State University, Chico. During that time, she studied abroad in Madrid, Spain, where she became fluent in Spanish. Since 2020, Chiara has gained experience with several legal internships, including with two technology companies, and as an associate attorney with a local firm. As a native of Italy, she is fluent in Italian.

On her free time, Chiara enjoys recreating traditional Italian family recipes, wine tasting, and spending time with her puppy. Chiara serves on the committee for Marketing and Public Relations of Girls Inc. of the Central Coast.
